

RD - READING

RD 101 College Reading Strategies.

3 Credits

Term Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

Provides instruction and practice in applying active reading strategies, improving comprehension in content areas, demonstrating critical thinking skills in responding to individual content area reading assignments, and increasing vocabulary to improve academic success. RD 101 prepares students for the demands of college-level reading. Course earns academic credit but does not count toward General Education, a degree, or certification.

Lecture Hours 3

Department: EDCI/EDF